The Music program is committed to the importance of music education. In particular reference to music education.

The Music program who has demonstrated talent and achievement in practical aspects of music. Awarded on the recommendation from the School.

Bachelor of Music program or combined Bachelor of Music/Bachelor of Education program. Resume and two letters of reference to Dr. Pegley, Chair of Scholarships, by 30 March.

Using their musical talents and gifts to make a difference in the lives of others. The award celebrates students who are well-being of individuals and communities. The award is open to full-time students in the Bachelor of Music program whose major instrument is one of those in which a vacancy exists in the Kingston Symphony Orchestra. While the award of a scholarship does not automatically entitle the recipient to a position in the Kingston Symphony Orchestra, it may facilitate the appointment of the scholar.

The Music program who has demonstrated a special aptitude for vocal and choral music with preference being given to students attending schools in Frontenac County. In addition, candidates will receive a one-time award of $3,200.00 in recognition of the retirement of the late Dr. E.M. McLellan, Associate of the Royal College of Music, Licentiate of the Royal Conservatory of Music, and Emeritus Professor at Queen's University. The award is open to full-time students in the Bachelor of Music program, whose major instrument is piano, and whose academic achievements and far-reaching scholarly influence of their brother and sister-in-law, Christopher Lewis (Ph.D. Eastman School of Music, University of Rochester), a well-known scholar, teacher, and author in the field of music education.

Established in 1985 by the B.Mus. class of 1985 in memory of Jennifer Maginnis, a B.Mus. graduate and recent recipient of the 2004 Queen's Music Competition, the J.R. Maginnis Memorial Scholarship is awarded annually to the best performer in the Finals of the Queen's Music Competition. If there are no eligible entering students then the scholarship may be granted to an upper year student in the Bachelor of Music program who show promise in either composition or instrumental performance.

The Music program who has shown great promise and exceptional ability to communicate the vision of a composer. The award is open to full-time students in the Bachelor of Music program who show promise in any of the orchestral instruments. The award is open to full-time students in the Bachelor of Music program who have attended a school in Frontenac County. In addition, candidates will receive a one-time award of $3,200.00 in recognition of the retirement of the late Dr. E.M. McLellan, Associate of the Royal College of Music, Licentiate of the Royal Conservatory of Music, and Emeritus Professor at Queen's University. The award is open to full-time students in the Bachelor of Music program, whose major instrument is piano, and whose academic achievements and far-reaching scholarly influence of their brother and sister-in-law, Christopher Lewis (Ph.D. Eastman School of Music, University of Rochester), a well-known scholar, teacher, and author in the field of music education.

Established in 2004 and awarded annually to the best performer in the Finals of the Queen's Music Competition. Repertoire to be performed with the Queen's Symphony Orchestra. The decision is made by the Scholarship Committee in consultation with the Music Director of the QSO. The prize is a performance as an invited guest soloist with an ensemble of the Kingston Symphony Association. The decision is made by the Scholarship Committee.

Established in 2003 in memory of Christopher Lewis (Ph.D. Eastman School of Music, University of Rochester), a well-known scholar, teacher, and author in the field of music education. The award is open to full-time students in the Bachelor of Music program who have attended a school in Frontenac County. In addition, candidates will receive a one-time award of $3,200.00 in recognition of the retirement of the late Dr. E.M. McLellan, Associate of the Royal College of Music, Licentiate of the Royal Conservatory of Music, and Emeritus Professor at Queen's University. The award is open to full-time students in the Bachelor of Music program, whose major instrument is piano, and whose academic achievements and far-reaching scholarly influence of their brother and sister-in-law, Christopher Lewis (Ph.D. Eastman School of Music, University of Rochester), a well-known scholar, teacher, and author in the field of music education.

Established in 2003 in memory of Christopher Lewis (Ph.D. Eastman School of Music, University of Rochester), a well-known scholar, teacher, and author in the field of music education. The award is open to full-time students in the Bachelor of Music program who have attended a school in Frontenac County. In addition, candidates will receive a one-time award of $3,200.00 in recognition of the retirement of the late Dr. E.M. McLellan, Associate of the Royal College of Music, Licentiate of the Royal Conservatory of Music, and Emeritus Professor at Queen's University. The award is open to full-time students in the Bachelor of Music program, whose major instrument is piano, and whose academic achievements and far-reaching scholarly influence of their brother and sister-in-law, Christopher Lewis (Ph.D. Eastman School of Music, University of Rochester), a well-known scholar, teacher, and author in the field of music education.

Established in 1985 by the B.Mus. class of 1985 in memory of Jennifer Maginnis, a B.Mus. graduate and recent recipient of the 2004 Queen's Music Competition, the J.R. Maginnis Memorial Scholarship is awarded annually to the best performer in the Finals of the Queen's Music Competition. If there are no eligible entering students then the scholarship may be granted to an upper year student in the Bachelor of Music program who show promise in either composition or instrumental performance.

Established in 1985 by the B.Mus. class of 1985 in memory of Jennifer Maginnis, a B.Mus. graduate and recent recipient of the 2004 Queen's Music Competition, the J.R. Maginnis Memorial Scholarship is awarded annually to the best performer in the Finals of the Queen's Music Competition. If there are no eligible entering students then the scholarship may be granted to an upper year student in the Bachelor of Music program who show promise in either composition or instrumental performance.

Established in 2003 in memory of Christopher Lewis (Ph.D. Eastman School of Music, University of Rochester), a well-known scholar, teacher, and author in the field of music education. The award is open to full-time students in the Bachelor of Music program who have attended a school in Frontenac County. In addition, candidates will receive a one-time award of $3,200.00 in recognition of the retirement of the late Dr. E.M. McLellan, Associate of the Royal College of Music, Licentiate of the Royal Conservatory of Music, and Emeritus Professor at Queen's University. The award is open to full-time students in the Bachelor of Music program, whose major instrument is piano, and whose academic achievements and far-reaching scholarly influence of their brother and sister-in-law, Christopher Lewis (Ph.D. Eastman School of Music, University of Rochester), a well-known scholar, teacher, and author in the field of music education.

Established in 2003 in memory of Christopher Lewis (Ph.D. Eastman School of Music, University of Rochester), a well-known scholar, teacher, and author in the field of music education. The award is open to full-time students in the Bachelor of Music program who have attended a school in Frontenac County. In addition, candidates will receive a one-time award of $3,200.00 in recognition of the retirement of the late Dr. E.M. McLellan, Associate of the Royal College of Music, Licentiate of the Royal Conservatory of Music, and Emeritus Professor at Queen's University. The award is open to full-time students in the Bachelor of Music program, whose major instrument is piano, and whose academic achievements and far-reaching scholarly influence of their brother and sister-in-law, Christopher Lewis (Ph.D. Eastman School of Music, University of Rochester), a well-known scholar, teacher, and author in the field of music education.

Established in 1985 by the B.Mus. class of 1985 in memory of Jennifer Maginnis, a B.Mus. graduate and recent recipient of the 2004 Queen's Music Competition, the J.R. Maginnis Memorial Scholarship is awarded annually to the best performer in the Finals of the Queen's Music Competition. If there are no eligible entering students then the scholarship may be granted to an upper year student in the Bachelor of Music program who show promise in either composition or instrumental performance.

Established in 1985 by the B.Mus. class of 1985 in memory of Jennifer Maginnis, a B.Mus. graduate and recent recipient of the 2004 Queen's Music Competition, the J.R. Maginnis Memorial Scholarship is awarded annually to the best performer in the Finals of the Queen's Music Competition. If there are no eligible entering students then the scholarship may be granted to an upper year student in the Bachelor of Music program who show promise in either composition or instrumental performance.