DAN School of Drama and Music at Queen's University invites applications from suitably qualified candidates interested in teaching a course in MUSC 335 Music Education in the Community. This is an in-person teaching, Lecture/Group Learning course with an expected enrolment of 40 students. Candidates should have a PhD in music education or a related discipline as well as teaching experience in the K-12 classroom or a community setting. Teaching experience at the university level is preferred. This is a Winter 2026 term appointment for the period 1-Jan-26 to 30-Apr-26, with classes in session from 5-Jan-26 to 6-Apr-26

The University invites applications from all qualified individuals. Queen's is strongly committed to employment equity, diversity and inclusion in the workplace and encourages applications from Black, racialized/visible minority and Indigenous people, women, persons with disabilities, and 2SLGBTQ+ persons. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, in accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada will be given priority. Please indicate in your application if you have a valid legal work status in Canada. Applications from all qualified candidates will be considered in the applicant pool. In order to support your employment at Queen's, we require you to indicate whether or not you will need a work permit.

The University will provide support in its recruitment processes to applicants with disabilities, including accommodation that takes into account an applicant's accessibility needs. If you require accommodation during this process, please contact: (DAN School Department Manager, manager.danschool@queensu.ca, (613) 533-2066).

The academic staff at Queen's University are governed by the Collective Agreement between the Queen's University Faculty Association (QUFA) and the University, which is posted at Collective Agreements/LoU's/MoA's.

Applications should include a cover letter, a complete and current curriculum vitae, letters of reference from two (2) referees, and any other relevant materials the candidate wishes to submit for consideration such as a letter of intent, teaching dossier, etc. Please arrange to have applications and supporting letters sent directly to:

Dr. Julia Brook, Director
DAN School of Drama and Music
