

Teaching Assistant Positions – DAN School of Drama and Music (Winter 2027)

During the Winter, 2027 term, the DAN School of Drama and Music is seeking Teaching Assistant for DRAM 103: Theatre and Pop Culture. This is an online course.

Responsibilities

- Assist with grading using the onQ tools
- Communicate with students to answer course-related questions
- Provide feedback on assignments
- Manage accommodations through Ventus
- Coordinate with course instructor

Course Description:

This course explores the relationship between theatre and popular culture, including the influence of theatre on film, television and other media.

For information about this course, see <https://www.queensu.ca/academic-calendar/arts-science/schools-departments-programs/drama-music/#coursestext>

Required Knowledge: Knowledge of constructs used to examine theatrical works, experience with literary analysis. Knowledge of cultural analysis. Extensive written knowledge required to mark essays or other written assignments; Extensive knowledge of spoken English to provide feedback on presentations or assignments; Ability to facilitate discussions with groups of students; Ability to respond to emails in a professional and succinct manner

Contract hours and rate of Pay

The hours in the TA contract will be determined based on the actual course enrolment. Past enrollments would indicate that there will be one position with contract hours would be 130 hours.

Graduate Teaching Assistants at Queen's University are governed by the Collective Agreement for Teaching Assistants and Teaching Fellows between PSAC Local 901 and Queen's University. Remuneration will be in accordance with the Collective Agreement, and appointments are subject to funding or enrolment criteria.

To Apply

Please complete the by 4 pm on Monday, July 13, 2026.

To apply please send email the following documents to manager.danschool@queensu.ca: CV, cover letter, and evidence of Mandatory Training for Queen's employees (if completed).

The University invites applications from all qualified individuals. Queen's University is committed to employment equity and diversity in the workplace and welcomes applications from women, visible minorities, indigenous peoples, persons with disabilities, and persons of any sexual orientation or gender identity. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority